

Dan Cooper

Cooper Lace

Hello, I'm Dan "Lace Lord" Cooper of Cooper Lace.

I've been an SDSA Business Member for five years, and during that time I've traveled throughout North America attending SDSA meetings, visiting sets and hosting clients at private gatherings.

The SDSA has been hugely beneficial to me and my business, and in return, I've done my utmost to support it through participating in its events and advertising as much as possible. As someone based on the East Coast, I have built strong connections to the set decoration communities in New York, Boston, Atlanta, and Toronto, as well as frequently traveling to Los Angeles.

I will advocate not only for my fellow Business Members, but everyone in the General Membership. I thank you in advance for your vote and look forward to meeting with you in the near future.
