

Karin Wiesel Holmes

Set Decorator

I have connected with so many Set Decorators and amazing vendors through the outreach of the East Coast SDSA and would love to help the organization grow and further spotlight the work of Set Decorators.

Our roles in this industry are constantly changing with the advancements in technology and evolving platforms on which our work is viewed. Coming together and discussing our unique challenges is therefore more important than ever for navigating these changes together to strengthen our community.