

As an SDSA Member I have already contributed to our community by participating in events and the SDSA comic con panels. I helped start and build the Hollywood Set Decorators Instagram account. I am involved in the local union.

As your SDSA board member, I plan to continue representing and educating the members and public about the ongoings of SDSA, its importance, and what set decorators do while bringing together the creative community and keeping up with the SDSA mission.