BUSINESS MEMBERS SPOTLIGHT

Sandy Rose Floral

Sandy Rose Floral, Inc., the only floral prop house dedicated Watch for the launch of our new mobile friendly site!

specifically to the needs of Set Decorators.

Founded in 1989 and later a Charter Business Member of the SDSA we have, over many years, developed a reputation for consistently transforming design concepts into reality utilizing fresh florals and cost effective silk rentals.

From simple, basic floral designs to arrangements on the cutting edge, fantasy pieces and accurate arrangements for any historical period, each creative challenge is exciting to us! We've crafted everything from a banana themed wedding for an Orangutan to the replication of Tricia Nixon's wedding.

Our warehouse is stocked with pre-made silk arrangements for practically any set along with a huge collection of urns and pedestals (in multiples), wedding arches and funeral pieces etc. These rentals work to stretch any budget and also allow one-stop shopping.

I wish I could do something musical like play an instrument or sing. Well.

What do you consider your greatest achievement?

My greatest achievement would be continuing to work in this sometimes unforgiving business and staying relatively sane or making a hunter's cap for a stuffed woodchuck. It's a toss up.

Which word or phrase do you most overuse?

I don't want it to attract too much attention.

What do you look for on the Craft Services table?

I try to stay away from the Craft Services table!

Please name a benefit of being an SDSA member.

Friendship, laughter, commiserating, working on a committee and seeing results, and great parties.
