SDSA DECORATOR SPOTLIGHT

In A Few Words...

Which talent would you most like to have?

My first answer would be to read minds, but my kids corrected me and said that's a super power - not a talent. I would love to have the ability to draw. My two sisters are both great artists.

Regina Graves

Partial Credits include:

THE KNICK (Season 1 and 2)*
GOETHAM (Pilot)*
VINYL (Pilot)
BLUE JASMINE
THE SECRET LIFE OF WALTER MITTY
NON-STOP
THE SMURFS
THE PARKERS
THE TAKING OF PELHAM 1,2,3
STEP UP 3-D

*Received Emmy nominations

I always wanted to sit and draw beautiful things... there's something peaceful and satisfying to that. I can draw, but I'm no Picasso.

What do you consider your greatest achievement?

My greatest achievement would have to be my two children- Grace and Jett. I'm an incredibly proud mama - and very happy they are growing into fine young adults. In the set decorating world, my greatest achievement is being nominated for 2 Emmys in the same year for 2 different shows.

Which word or phrase do you most overuse?

Are curse words allowed? Seriously, I do tend to overuse the "F" word - but in a good way. I also say "Oh my god I love it!" I'm also overheard much of the time starting out a sentence with "Let me tell you something"

What do you look for on the Craft Services table?

I wish I could say healthy treats but I tend to be on the look out for Laffy Taffy

Please name a benefit of being an SDSA member.

For me it's a network, a community. I get to interact with people in the same business as myself who have the same interests and can relate to what we do on a day-to-day basis. I like to read about other decorators on the SDSA website and see what they are doing and look at all the wonderful work. I also like to be in tune with the business members. Being an SDSA member is very resourceful - you kind of have the film world at your fingertips.

BUZZ CORRECTION

In the July 2015 issue, Laura Richarz was misquoted in the Decorator Spotlight.
The correct quote is:

Which word or phrase do you most overuse?

"I don't want it to attract too much attention"

(referring to a piece of set dressing not attracting too much attention)

Apologies to Laura. The Buzz regrets the error.
