Hollywood International Placements, Inc.

I have been a member of the SDSA since the beginning when Mel Cooper, in the SEINFELD days said, "You have to support our society." I have become friends for life with many decorators due to continual support of events, and have always felt so proud to be associates with our set decorators and crews.

A strong supporter of networking businesses with decorators, I started the SDSA MarketPlace with Business Members, and have been on many committees, always working with teams and growing relationships in all areas of businesses that support film and TV making.

Long term clients include; Blue Diamond, Sierra Nevada, Meredith Corp., and Chopin Vodka. Newer clients are Country Archer Jerky, Black & Decker, and George Forman Grills.

Being a shopaholic in my early days, product placement was a natural for my drive to finding promotional items and products for sets, and the response from our decorators is always positive!

Wallspace

Wallspace is a dynamic gallery on La Brea that shows art in a non-conventional setting. Hung salon style on 14' high walls, our aim has been to create a floor-to-ceiling visceral experience. We represent contemporary abstract art of over 60 emerging and more established Los Angeles based artists. In addition to the gallery even more work is available on line to view from each artist.

For Decorators and Designers we offer a full service of renting and selling art, all with the rights to show on television, film and print media. If in need of custom sizes we can have any work scanned, printed and stretched. Or if out of town we can arrange shipping, or have scanned images emailed to you to print wherever your project may be.

As a decorator in commercials I understand the demands of our industry. I look forward to any challenges and any art emergency!

In A Few Words...

Which talent would you most like to have?

I've always wanted to play a musical instrument, in particular the violin or cello. I am actually now taking violin lessons and starting to learn to read music.

What do you consider your greatest achievement?

There have been many achievements I am proud of in my past. I think it's all relative with time. The greatest achievement is always the one just ahead in the future.

Which word or phrase do you most overuse?

It's a toss up between "Fantastic!" and "Not a problem".

What do you look for on the Craft Services table?

Almonds, chocolate and decent coffee.

Please name a benefit of being an SDSA member.

The SDSA has given me the opportunity to meet many other Set Decorators that I respect and admire. Through the organization I have expanded my network of peers and developed new friendships. It has also been a beneficial means in connecting with new businesses as well as staying up to date with our craft.
