2016 SDSA Awards Luncheon & Art Auction

It's time to join in with a donation!

SDSA members are encouraged to donate their original works of art to the Art Auction benefiting this year's SDSA Charitable Recipient,
Inner-City Arts.

The Auction will take place at the SDSA Awards Luncheon Sunday, April 10th, 2016

Please drop your art ASAP at the SDSA OFFICE
7100 Tujunga Ave, North Hollywood CA 91605 (inside RC Vintage)
Phone: 818.255.2425

Original paintings, drawings, photographs, prints and sculpture should be
"framed and ready to hang" (if applicable).

Framing discounts are available from,
Hollywood Studio Gallery, U-Frame-It Gallery and Hollywood Cinema Arts.
You should have your artwork in for framing by March 14th to receive framing discounts.

The SDSA Community Outreach Committee can provide a tax deductible receipt to any production that will sponsor the framing of a SDSA member's contribution to the 2016 SDSA COC Art Auction to Benefit Inner-City Arts.

Participation in the SDSA COC Art Auction's "Kate Sheeley Art Outreach" program at a nominal cost of $30.00 out the door is a real value for out-of-state members.

Check the SDSA website, www.setdecorators.org for more information and forms used to identify and submit your donation of art (also available at the office).

Deliver your art to the SDSA office no later than March 31st, 2016.

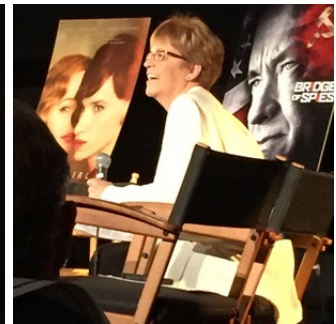

SDSA IN LOS ANGELES

The Art of Production Design - Oscar Nominee Panel

Moderated by Jan Pascale SDSA and Thomas A. Walsh ADG

The design teams from the nominated films for the 2015 Academy Award for Achievement in Production Design gathered for a panel discussion on February 27th at the Egyptian Theater in Hollywood.

The panel included set decorators Rena DeAngelo SDSA and Bernhard Henrich (BRIDGE OF SPIES), Lisa Thompson SDSA (MAD MAX: FURY ROAD), Michael Standish (THE DANISH GIRL), Celia Bobak SDSA (THE MARTIAN) and Hamish Purdy SDSA (THE REVENANT).

Day With the Set Decorator

Radford Studio Center was the location for Day With the Set Decorator on March 5th. Attendees visited the sets of THE TALK, BABY DADDY and BROOKLYN NINE-NINE as well as the backlot which BROOKLYN NINE-NINE had dressed.

Q and A then took place on the set of THE TALK.

Thank you to the panel, which included:
Amy Feldman SDSA, Jill Sprayregen Henkel, SDSA Debra Echard SDSA, Roya Parivar SDSA,
William DeBiasio SDSA, and Tom Early SDSA

Modernism Week

On February 14th a standing room only crowd enjoyed the Hollywood Designs on TV & Film panel discussion led by author Cathy Whitlock and featuring Set Decorator Ellen Brill SDSA and Production Designer Jeannine Oppewall.

Presented by WestEdge Design Fair and the Set Decorators Society of America (SDSA), the chat recalled iconic sets in the modern style and shed light on the collaborative process.

JACKIE B. SHOWROOM

Always the creative entrepreneur, Jackie Bartolo began her career in 1985 in women's contemporary clothing where she gained experience representing large brands and dealing with major stores. After many years in the industry, she opened her eponymous showroom in 2003 where she still manages designers today.

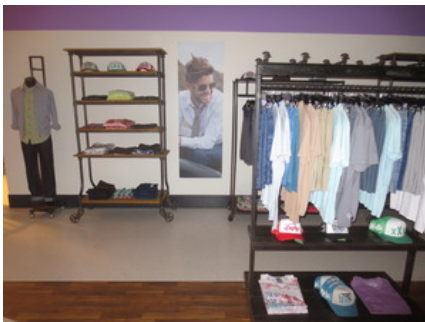

She uses her trained eye and industry connections to create unique and eye-catching studio sets and mock clothing stores for television shows and movies. Along her journey, she has had the pleasure of collaborating with production designer, directors, set decorators and set dressing crews.

Which talent would you most like to have?

I would give my left arm for a great singing voice. If I had half the voice I wanted, this would be in Rolling Stone and I would be in a terrible hurry to type fast so I wouldn't be late to the studio to sing with Stevie Nicks and Annie Lennox.

What do you consider your greatest achievement?

Personally? Maintaining friendships I started in grade school and high school.

Professionally? The 2015 GRAMMY AWARDS set for Sia's Chandelier.

Which word or phrase do you most overuse?

Suspect and suspicious. Those words aren't always bad, they just mean I am inspired to dig and find out more than what meets the eye.

What do you look for on the Craft Services table?

The French Vanilla creamer. It is likely a carcinogen but I don't care. It is heaven.

Please name a benefit of being an SDSA member.

For many years I thought I was a lone wolf being a Set Decorator. At times it can feel like a solitary pursuit. The SDSA changed that. Now I see friends at Prop Houses. I can call people for input and swap stories. I got a peer group and a community. It changed my career and my life.
