Part 2: Set Decorator Member Applicants

(Associates please proceed to the following page.)

Professional Credits:

Applicants submit a resume, which must meet the experience requirements listed below. LIST ONLY THOSE PRODUCTIONS FOR WHICH YOU ARE CREDITED AS THE SET DECORATOR, OR KEY SET DECORATOR. (Assistant Set Decorator credits do not qualify for this category of membership)

Resumes should reflect at least two years experience working exclusively as a Set Decorator. Your resume may include a combination of film, television, streaming, and commercial/music video credits. We may request examples of your work before processing your application.

Television: 20 hours minimum composed of single and/or multiple camera formats.

Film: At least three features, released either to theaters, streaming or video/DVD.

Commercials/ Music Videos: A minimum of ten national commercials and/or larger scale music videos.

Professional References: Please list five professional references. Two must be current SDSA members, either two Set Decorator members or one Set Decorator member and one Business Member. Representatives of the membership committee will contact them. The other three references may include any of the following: Production Designers/Art Directors, Producers/UPMS, and Directors

That's it! Thanks for your interest in The SDSA. Once your application has been processed you will be contacted by one of the members of our membership committee

Part 2: Associate Member Applicants

Professional Credits:

This category welcomes emerging Set Decorators who do not yet meet our Set Decorator Member requirements, as well as qualified Assistant Set Decorators, Buyers, Leads, and Set Dressers. Associate Members do not vote in SDSA elections, but enjoy most of the privileges of Set Decorator members. They are listed on our website and membership directory, invited to all events and are encouraged to sit on committees.

To apply for Associate membership, please submit a copy of your current resume. We may request examples of your work before we process your application.

If you are accepted as an Associate Member, and later wish to move up to full Set Decorator Member, you would reapply, with no additional application fee, after gaining the credits to qualify.

Professional References:

Associate Members of the SDSA must be sponsored by three current members. These can be three Set Decorator members or two Set Decorator members and one Business Member. Representatives of the membership committee will contact them.
